The Brill Journal Archives Online (2015)

The Brill Journal Archives Online offer access to over 4,500 volumes of nearly 200 scholarly journals. The Journal Archives consist of two parts, the first covering the 19th and 20th century and the second part the first decade of the 21st century. The Archives hold the imprints Brill and Martinus Nijhoff.

The academic community considers The Brill Journal Archives Online an invaluable resource for finding valuable content and acquiring an historical perspective on the humanities, social sciences, international law & human rights, and biology & science. Additionally, a purchase of the archives enables libraries to save shelf space and to provide their users with the online archives of journals currently not subscribed to.

Brill Journal Archives Online Part I and Part II

The Journal Archives consist of two parts, the first part covering the 19th and 20th century and the second part the first decade of the 21st century. Each part in turn is divided into subject-specific collections: Humanities & Social Sciences, International Law & Human Rights, and Biology & Science. Each collection may be purchased individually.

Brill Journal Archives Online Part I: Archives from the 19th and 20th Century

Part I of the Journal Archives comprises content of 2,941 volumes of 115 journals published before 2000. The archival content generally starts with volume 1 issue 1 and goes up to the last issue published in 1999. It includes journals which were previously published under different names and/or by another publisher. The Archive is still growing as more journals are added to the Brill publication list. Recently some extra 5% of content was added to this Archive.

Brill Journal Archives Online Part II: Archives from the 21st Century

Part II covers 1,403 volumes of 191 journals that were published in the 10-year period 2000-2009. Recently some extra 3% of content was added to this Archive.
