is a Library borrowing scheme that allows staff and students of participating Australian and New Zealand universities* to borrow in person from any other member university. The scheme is a cooperative arrangement between member universities of the Council of Australian University Librarians and the Council of New Zealand University Librarians.

*The University of Auckland is not participating in this scheme.

Check the website of local universities for more information about ULANZ

Who can borrow?

All students and staff from participating libraries.
You can only borrow in person at the host library where you register.

See over for a complete list of participating university libraries.

What documents do I need?

Students will be asked to present a photo ID as well as proof of current enrolment. This could be your enrolment advice form or other proof from your university.

Staff members will be asked to present a photo ID as well as proof of current employment with a university participating in the scheme. Where applicants are not currently employed at a participating university, for example, a visiting scholar, proof of affiliation with a CAUL or CONZUL university that specifies arrangements for indemnity for borrowing must be provided.

The library you visit will either register you on the spot or mail your borrowing card to you in a few days.

How do I apply?

You need to apply directly to the library where you wish to borrow. There is no need to contact your own university library. Applications are made in person unless the library has an online registration scheme. Check the ULANZ borrowing scheme web page of the library you wish to join for any details about registration and borrowing conditions.

Is registration permanent?

No. Membership is for the current calendar year only, no matter when you join throughout the year. Borrowing privileges will expire on 28th February of the following year. Proof of continued enrolment or employment will be required to renew your registration each year.
What does registration entitle me to?

Membership privileges such as what and how many items may be borrowed, length of loans and access to reference services and to the internet will vary, and depend on the rules of the host library. Please check the website of the Library you would like to visit to find this out in advance.

Requests for inter-library loans are not part of this scheme and should be made to your home library.

Returning material

You must return material to the Library from which it was borrowed. Fines may apply for overdue material – check the information on the host library website.
