

- 00:22:14 CAUL Webinar Host: Questions can be put in www.sli.do event code 90744
- 00:39:10 Peter Green: In the couple of years since we developed the Statement on Open Scholarship, indigenous cultural awareness has grown and grown, and the next revision should absolutely reference indigenous research protocols.
- 00:41:43 Jill Benn: Thanks Peter - agreed!
- 00:46:44 Belinda Weaver: Yes, hear hear Peter
- 00:53:04 Sue Owen: That's great Peter - and thanks for all your work on the SOS!
- 00:58:17 Belinda Weaver: Questions on slido seem to be anonymous but I posted about Open Research statements and am keen to hear what others are doing in this space.
- 01:02:28 Jill Benn: Hi Belinda - you can see the focus on open research in the new UWA strategic plan here - <https://www.uwa.edu.au/uwa2030/our-strategy/research-and-innovation>
- 01:02:56 Paula Callan: The first iteration of the CAUL Retaining Rights project conducted a survey of OA & IP policies in Australia.
- 01:02:59 Belinda Weaver: Thanks Jill!
- 01:03:31 Belinda Weaver: Open Research statements are a bit wider - see <https://www.york.ac.uk/staff/research/open-research/>
- 01:05:13 Belinda Weaver: If people want to save the chat themselves, just click the 3 dots and it pops up as an option.
- 01:05:36 Fiona Bradley: and to follow on from Paula we did a non-exhaustive scan in the second phase of the project. Belinda, I believe Melbourne has an open research statement. Many unis looking at OERs also.
- 01:07:16 Jackie Wolstenholme: Is open scholarship are more useful term rather than open science?
- 01:08:13 leanne webster: here is the Uni melb open scholarship statements <https://library.unimelb.edu.au/open-scholarship>
- 01:08:14 Fiona Bradley: Jackie, one that gets debated endlessly depending on country and discipline!
- 01:08:21 Belinda Weaver: Open Research is the new thing Jackie - wider and more inclusive than Open Science.
- 01:09:14 CAUL Webinar Host: We will capture these links and send to you all with the link to the slides and recordings.

- 01:14:54 Bob Gerrity:
<https://scholarlycommunications.jiscinvolve.org/wp/2018/10/22/open-access-briefing-paper-considering-the-implications-of-the-finch-report/>
- 01:16:34 Jill Benn: Thanks to Catherine for all of her hard work leading the Advancing Open Scholarship Program - so much progress being made. And thanks too to all Aus/NZ library staff involved in CAUL projects.
- 01:16:40 Angeletta Leggio: Great initiatives and work happening by CAUL. Thanks for running the session.
- 01:17:02 Scott Abbott: Great work all. Thank you!
- 01:17:07 Jennifer Bremner: Thank you very much - very informative and interesting
- 01:17:12 leanne webster: thank you for this informative session-really valuable!
- 01:17:14 Catherine Radbourne: Thank you :)
- 01:17:16 robin burgess: thankyou!!
- 01:17:17 Piyachat Ratana: thank you
- 01:17:22 Emma Peters: Thank you all
- 01:17:23 Stephanie McGlinchey: Thank you, it was really engaging and informative!
- 01:17:23 Fiona Bradley: Great updates!
- 01:17:24 Sue Owen: Huge thanks Catherine, Bob, Angus and Mark - this is very helpful at this time
- 01:17:33 Kayla Maloney: Thank you!
- 01:17:33 Alissa Sputore: Thanks Catherine!
- 01:17:34 Elizabeth Seymour: Thanks, it was excellent!